Subject: Advantius January 13 Web Conference

Hello! Here is the recording from today's web conference. It lasts just under one hour and introduces eLabor, a marvelous time and attendance solution. I'd encourage each of you to take a few minutes to view this. Watch for details about upcoming web conferences. The next one will happen in early February. We're looking at a Friday morning schedule. Would that work better than Monday morning? Every other week - rather than every week? Let me know your thoughts when you can.

Subject: No Web Conference Nov. 25
Importance: High

Because of the Thanksgiving Holiday this next week, because quite a few people are on vacation or are scrambling to complete 5 days work in 3 days, we will not be holding a Web Conference this coming Monday, November 25. We will hold our next Web Conference on December 2 at the usual time. Look for the December 2 agenda in your email inbox next Wednesday.

Happy Thanksgiving!
